Big Move in Indian Electronics Manufacturing!

Syrma SGS Technology Limited & Elemaster Group Electronic Technologies have announced a strategic joint venture to strengthen high-reliability electronics manufacturing in India.

This collaboration aims to bring together Syrma's strong local presence and manufacturing expertise with Elemaster's global design & engineering capabilities—a significant step in making India a hub for cutting-edge, high-reliability electronics.

- ◆ Boosting India's electronics ecosystem
- ◆ Driving innovation in high-end manufacturing
- ◆ Supporting the "Make in India" vision

With global and domestic demand for advanced electronics rising, this partnership is a timely push towards self-reliance and export competitiveness.

Exciting times ahead for India's electronics and semiconductor industry!
