Last Friday I joined the #Weletech event by Elemaster Group Electronic Technologies. It was a solid event. I also enjoyed the talk by Alberto Mattiello, an innovation speaker and author.

After almost 10 years, Im now on the customer side.

This change reminds me that a strong supplier–customer relationship is #key. With trust, clear rules, and shared goals, we can win together in a time of fast change and high competition.

Thank you to Eletech/Elemaster for the open dialogue and good work.
